MANDATORY - Code of Ethics Biennial Training

Don't lose your REALTOR® membership!

Beginning January 1, 2017 and for successive two-year periods thereafter, REALTORS® are required to complete biennial ethics training of not less than two hours and 30 minutes of instructional time.

If your primary association membership is here at WAAR, we must report that you have met this Code of Ethics requirement to NAR no later than December 31, 2018.

Ways to complete this requirement -

1. Take the Code of Ethics class at WAAR - our class meets NAR's requirement as well as offers CE, PL and Broker credits for license renewal in Virginia. Click here for upcoming Code of Ethics classes at WAAR.
2. Take the Code of Ethics class in classroom at a different school and send WAAR your Certificate of Completion. We will then determine if the course meets NAR's requirements. If it does, we will report your completion to NAR; if not, we will get in touch with you and let you know you will need to retake the course from a different school.
3. Take the Code of Ethics class online and send WAAR the Certificate of Completion. We will then determine if the course meets NAR's requirements. If it does, we will report your completion to NAR; if not, we will get in touch with you and let you know you will need to retake the course from a different online school.
4. NAR offers this course free of charge on their website. The free course meets the requirement but does not offer CE, PL or BR credits. Click here to access the course and for more information. NAR also offers an accredited Code of Ethics class for a fee.

Plan now to take your real estate career to the next level by attending one or more of these designation/certification courses -

Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES) Designation - Coming Soon!

The SRES® Council trains REALTORS® to meet the special needs of maturing Americans when selling, buying, relocating, or refinancing residential or investment properties. The Council tracks the over 50 lifestyle and housing issues and educates REALTORS® who are making over 50 real estate a part of their overall business plan. By earning the SRES® designation, REALTORS® are prepared to approach mature clients with the best options and information for them to make life-changing decisions.

In addition to guiding clients to the right experts on tax laws, probate, estate planning, and a variety of equity conversion strategies, Seniors Real Estate Specialists® can offer clients relevant information on current trends in real estate transactions for the 50+ market. Additional certification requirements are necessary. Learn more on the SRES website by clicking here.

Graduate, REALTOR® Institute (GRI) Designation

The Graduate REALTOR® Institute (GRI) is an education program and designation sponsored by the Virginia REALTORS®. GRI is recognized by the National Association of REALTORS® and is one of the most popular designations for REALTOR® members nationwide. The program focuses on developing and increasing participants' professionalism and skill set in order to strengthen both the value to consumers and the member's bottom line.

While licensing courses and most post license education teach you how to manage risk in your business and complete transactions, GRI offers you enhanced skills for ultimate success in a real estate career.
